

2017 AWARD RECIPIENTS

CCSME Annual Meeting | Maine's Reponse to the Opioid Crisis

Visionary Leadership Award

Recognizes an individual, organization, or an initiative in the behavioral health care field that has demonstrated outstanding leadership in improving the lives of individuals with mental illnesses and substance use disorders and/or their communities.

Mary Susan Haynes, Ph.D., in recognition of her efforts to advance Partners for Change Outcome Management System (PCOMS) and Evidence-Based Practices and Practice-Based Evidence

The Hon. Nancy Mills, in recognition of her achievement in establishing the Maine Co-Occurring Disorders and Veterans Court

Innovative Practice Award

Recognizes an organization that has provided exemplary service to clients and families to improve outcomes for people with behavioral health needs through innovative, science-based programs and services.

Grace Street, LLC in recognition of their efforts to increase access to innovative evidence-based interventions that builds a culture of compassion, creativity, commitment and community

Craig Smith, DO, North Bridgton Family Practice and Catherine Clough-Bell, LADC, CCS, Crooked River Counseling, PA in recognition of their efforts to bring integrated Medication Assisted Treatment to their community

Community Response Award

Recognizes efforts to respond to community needs and create thriving, healthy communities.

Maine Quality Counts and Maine Medical Association in recognition of the Caring for ME initiative

Michael J. Sauschuck, Chief of Police, Portland Police Department in recognition of his visionary work in transforming the relationship between the Portland Police Department and those experiencing mental health and addiction issues

Collaboration Award

Recognizes organizations or initiatives that promote cooperation and collaborative responses to address behavioral health issues in Maine.

Healthy Acadia in recognition of their dedication and efforts to build vibrant healthy communities

Young People in Recovery in recognition of their efforts to advance the voices of recovery