

Greater Portland Health in Partnership with the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA), Co-Occurring Collaborative Serving Maine (CCSME) and Maine Medical Association (MMA)

Summit on Opioid and Other Substance Use Disorder:

Embracing Substance Use Treatment and Recovery in Primary Care - A Community Approach

Wednesday, September 13, 2017

8:00am – 4:30pm

USM Abramson Center

AGENDA

Morning Session: Clinical Tools for Treating Substance Use Disorders in Primary Care

8:00 am Registration

8:15 am Welcome and Framing the Day (Greater Portland Health Leadership and Health Resources and Services Administration)

8:25 am – 9:25 am Addiction as a Chronic Disease: Neurobiology, Manifestations, and Clinical Care
Seddon R. Savage, M.D., M.S., Dartmouth Center on Addiction, Recovery and Education

9:30 am – 11:00 am An Invitation to Change Approach: Blending evidence-based strategies for helping family members with substance use problems.

Kenneth M. Carpenter, Ph.D., Director of Training, Center for Motivation and Change

11:00 am – 11:15 am Break

11:15 am – 12:30 am Tobacco and Other Substance Use

Edward J. Perka, Jr., Tobacco Treatment Educator, Center for Tobacco Independence, MaineHealth

12:30 pm - 1:30 pm Lunch Break on Own

Afternoon Session: Developing a Community approach to SUD Care

1:30 pm – 1:40 pm Welcome back

1:45 pm – 2:45 Treating High Acuity/Intensity Patients in Primary Care

Laura Kehoe, M.D., Massachusetts General Hospital Bridge Clinic

2:45 pm - 4:15 pm Local experts – Primary Care at a Crossroads in Addressing Substance Use Problems

Facilitated by Christopher Bersani, Psy.D., ABPP, Health Resources Services Administration

- Ayorkor Gaba, Psy.D., M.I.S.S.I.O.N. University of Massachusetts Medical School
- Trip Gardner, MD, Hope House, Penobscot Community Health Center
- Jesse Harvey, Peer Support, Greater Portland Health
- Carolee Lindsey, LCSW, LADC, CCS, Catholic Charities
- David Loxterkamp, MD, Seaport Community Health Center

4:15 pm – 4:30 pm Closing Remarks